Hey Bill, how are you doing? You look concerned?
Tell us, do you worry about money and vaccines?
We would be happy to invite you and your wife!

High up in the mountains, where the waters still flow freely
Where the eagle pair gently circles in the air
Come join us, Bill and Melinda, we're having a party!

Now the alpine farmers are gathered round the fire
Beer, sausage and campfire bread are waiting for you
Come join us, Bill and Melinda, we're having a party!

The alpage is wide and everyone is welcome!
Bring your friends: Anthony, Victor, Tim!
Come, celebrate with us, we're having a party!

Hey Bill, you look happy! The mountain air feels good, right?
Life can be simple without all those meetings
No longer in the skyscraper – but high in the Alps!
